

VACANCY

Chief Executive Officer

Are you ready to take your leadership skills to the next level? The Solomon Islands Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SICCI) is looking for a dynamic and results-driven Chief Executive Officer to lead the charge in driving the private sector voice in the Solomon Islands.

This exciting role as CEO for SICCI, is tasked with ensuring that the private sector remains the engine of growth for the economy. You'll play a critical role in national debate, policy discussions, and development planning, working closely with government officials, business leaders, and other key stakeholders to shape the future of the Solomon Islands.

This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to secure a strong public-private partnership, paving the way for increased investment, job creation, and economic prosperity. As the peak body representing the private sector in the Solomon Islands, SICCI is committed to driving positive change and making a real difference in people's lives.

If you're up for the challenge and ready to make a real impact, we want to hear from you. Apply today and join the SICCI team in shaping the future of the Solomon Islands.

Responsibilities:

- Lead a team in advocacy, media & communications, membership & services, export industry development, young entrepreneurs, finance, administration and strategy departments.
- Ensure that SICCI Secretariat is fully resourced, accountable for individual departmental targets, and works collaboratively together. The CEO will mentor and coach team members and ensure duty of care.
- Maintain accurate financial records and continue to achieve an annual audit free of any material findings.

The candidate will have a minimum of 5 years' experience working in the private sector, public sector, or non-government organisation and an expert understanding of corporate finance and business management. Strong knowledge of financial, technical, and economic concepts, proven success as a senior executive managing departmental teams, familiarity with country and regional regulatory compliance and excellent communication skills. In addition, the successful candidate will have strong leadership, interpersonal, communication, organizational and negotiation skills.

The position is based in Honiara and will require some local and international travel. The appointment is for 3 years and an attractive remuneration package will be offered to the right candidate.

All applicants must provide a cover letter outlining their interest in the position, a current CV with copies of academic qualifications, and two referees support letters with contact details.

All enquiries should be directed to the Executive Officer at SICCI on phone 39542 or email executive@solomonchamber.com.sb
